The meeting began with a prayer. The new IQAC co-ordinator Dr. Whyni Gopi welcomed the gathering. Principal Dr. Anitha Jose addressed the gathering, appreciating the efforts of all the members in the NAAC accreditation process. She reminded me about the matters we have to plan and take care of in the process of the next cycle of accreditation aiming at A++. Ms. Ann Mary Joseph summarized the NAAC report and each criterion charge gave comments and recommendations based on the marks scored for various metrics.

The following were the suggestions made

- ✓ Implementation of choice for the student for choosing electives in the program.
- ✓ Integration of certificate courses compulsory for all students.
- ✓ Integration of internships/student projects or such activities for students of all batches.
- ✓ Speed up the publication of results adopting proper strategies.
- ✓ Adopt strategies to reduce the grievances (revaluation)
- ✓ Encourage teachers to register as research guides and publish papers in reputed journals.
- ✓ Encourage teachers to participate in FDP/Courses of at least 7-day duration.
- ✓ Take appropriate decisions to make strict practices to generate consultancy-related revenue.

- ✓ Make proper documentation for scholarships & and free ships, placements, and progression.
- ✓ Conduct regular capability enhancement programs in association with IQAC.
- ✓ Take initiatives to publicize aspects like value, tolerance, etc on the campus.
- ✓ Initiate measures for water conservation and increase MoUs for waste management.

Ms. Rani Maria talked about her experience with the 'Study In India Programme'. She reminded me to follow up on the project and re-register for the program in the coming year. Thereafter Ms Anne Mary Joseph announced the criterion charge for each IQAC member.

The meeting came to an end by 4:15 pm.
